Announcing the HBCU Travel Awards Fund

AMCP and AMCP Foundation are proudly partnering to expand opportunities for student pharmacists who attend Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Collaborating with AMCP affiliates and leaders who launched this effort, AMCP Foundation created the HBCU Travel Awards Fund to provide grants to HBCU pharmacy students to attend AMCP's national meetings. We are proud to recognize the first recipients of the travel award! Delyn Owen-Robinson and Haseeb M. Malik are pictured with the volunteers who brought this program to life.

Your contribution to our new HBCU Travel Awards Fund will help future leaders like Delyn and Haseeb gain a deeper understanding of the profession. Together, we can promote diversity and inclusivity in managed care pharmacy.
