

2023 National P&T Competition Phases

As members of the Clinical Pharmacy Services department at Patients First Health Plan, student teams are tasked with developing a formulary drug monograph for ADBRY™ and preparing a PowerPoint presentation to the P&T Committee.

All schools that choose to enter the 2023 National P&T Competition must upload the following assignments to the P&T Competition portal no later than 11:59 pm EST on Monday, January 23:

- ◆ Formulary drug monograph for Adbry, using the provided template.
- ◆ A file with supporting materials to include:
 - Completed individual study quality assessment questionnaires.
 - ICER Evidence Rating Matrix summary report.
 - Supplemental budget impact model information (if applicable).
- ◆ A narrated PowerPoint file for a P&T Committee presentation (not to exceed 15 minutes) that succinctly conveys and supports the team's findings and recommendations.

During this phase, the formulary drug monograph will be reviewed and scored by judges.

The 15 teams with the highest scores will advance to the semi-finals round. Semi-finalist teams will be notified no later than Wednesday, February 15, 2023.

During this phase, each semi-finalist team's narrated PowerPoint presentation will be reviewed and scored by judges.

The teams that achieve the highest scores during the semi-finals will be invited to compete in the final round of the P&T Competition, held in conjunction with the AMCP 2023 Annual Meeting in San Antonio, Texas, March 21 to 24. Finalist teams will be notified no later than Friday, March 3.

During a live P&T Competition Finals session, teams will make their P&T Committee presentation to a panel of judges and respond to questions. These judges also will review and score each team's drug monograph before the live session.

The top teams will be determined based on the combined scores for drug monograph and P&T Committee presentation.
