

Judith A. Cahill Named 2023 Steven G. Avey Award Winner

The 2023 Steven G. Avey Award, the most prestigious honor in managed care pharmacy, is presented posthumously to Judith A. Cahill. As AMCP's first CEO, Judy set the bar high through her dedication to impacting and improving health care on a national level and ensuring that the patient voice is incorporated in the discussion. Judy guided our association through the passing of the Medicare Modernization Act and the launch of Medicare Part D. The managed care pharmacy community mourned the loss of Judy last year and we honor her once more with this posthumous award. Join us in celebrating Judy's legacy with a gift to AMCP Foundation's memorial fund.
