As temperatures dip and the holidays are upon us, we begin a season of reflecting and giving thanks for family, friends, and the professional colleagues we surround ourselves with. At AMCP Foundation, we're grateful for your engagement with us—whether serving in leadership roles, participating in our special programs (the Judy Cahill Fund, the Cathy Carroll fund), the Student Pharmacist 1990 Club, the travel grants for students at HBCUs, or participating in various ways to mentor and precept the next generation of leaders in managed care pharmacy.

As the season of giving approaches and we contemplate the causes closest to our hearts, we hope you will take a few moments to peruse this edition of our planned giving newsletter as we explore ways you can create a meaningful impact before the end of 2023, including writing a legacy letter. Additionally, we delve into the profound "why" that motivates you to champion the future of managed care pharmacy.

Sincerely,

Susan A. Cantrell
