

Have You Done These 7 Things?

Now more than ever, we want to say: thank you! We are so grateful for the ways you advance health care and science in your response to COVID-19.

While many aspects of our work remain in flux, there remains one constant: the importance of friends like you. We are working harder than ever as we innovate upon our important programs.

You make the difference. Funding partners, volunteers and donors have helped us respond to the challenges presented by the cancellation of AMCP 2020. Our new virtual formats for the Best Poster and P&T Competitions are but two examples of how we are adapting to the evolving environment and continuing our mission.

In uncertainty, we become even more mindful of just how precious resources are. It is natural to reflect more upon our security and that of our families. AMCP Foundation has tools available for long-term estate planning. Use these to document your intentions for your loved ones—it's one small step you can take now, from home, to reduce stress and anxiety.

Estate planning can also support the causes most dear to you. Designating a gift in your will to our organization is easy and ensures you can still care for yourself and your family first. Here's a tool many AMCP Foundation donors have found helpful: our Personal Estate Planning Kit.

This edition of our newsletter contains planning tips that can save you time and money. We welcome any questions you may have about the material and how the AMCP Foundation can help you meet your goals.

Thank you so much for your ongoing support. If you have questions about ways you can help today or in the future, please contact us.

Best wishes for health,
Paula, Ebony and the AMCP Foundation team
