

If this year taught us anything, it's the value of a contingency plan. As we approach the end of the year, it's a good time to review your estate plan. What updates are in order given the disruption we experienced in 2020? The articles below can help you ensure your family doesn't pay the price for costly errors you can avoid.

We know 2020 has been a challenging time for everyone. Prioritizing safety and health has been paramount amidst wildfires, hurricanes, COVID-19 and more – but if you're able to send a year-end gift, we would be so grateful. Plus, you're able to choose how your gift is used. To receive these benefits, however, you must time your gift appropriately.

To receive a charitable deduction on your income taxes this year, your gift must be completed on or before Dec. 31. So, plan ahead with GivingTuesday on Dec. 1 and contribute now to our goal of \$10,000. Your generosity enables us to meet urgent needs and carry out our mission daily.

With hope and our best wishes for health in the New Year,

Paula, Ebony and the AMCP Foundation team
