

The Steven G. Avey Award is administered by the AMCP Foundation, a research, education and philanthropic organization supporting the Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy. The Steven G. Avey Award recognizes sustained, exemplary and distinguished service to the profession of managed care pharmacy and is the field's highest award.

NOMINATION INFORMATION

Award Criteria

Award recipients are recognized as role models who have made significant and continuing contributions to the advancement of managed care pharmacy in the areas of clinical practice, research, education, public policy and/or administration. Honorees embody the values that Steven G. Avey demonstrates, including volunteerism, integrity and vision. Individuals will have excelled in any or all of the following criteria:

Leadership

The individual has displayed leadership in his/her career that has resulted in the professional growth and recognition of the practice of managed care pharmacy. The individual's actions distinguish him/her as a role model and mentor within the profession. Leadership has been demonstrated by serving on boards related to the practice of pharmacy and/or in a voluntary capacity within an organization(s) focused on pharmacy, public health or health care.

Research

Activities in this area have led to outcomes-based achievements in population health.

Professionalism/Advocacy

Accomplishments in this area include lectures, presentations, publications, etc. that serve to advance the practice of managed care pharmacy as well as contributions to policy that enhance the delivery of health care and/or pharmacy services at the managed care organization or public level. The individual has also demonstrated high regard for patient advocacy.

Innovation

The individual has made a significant contribution that has led to the development of new concepts, processes or improvements in health care delivery through managed care pharmacy activities or services.

Collaboration

The individual displays through his/her work a spirit of collaboration with multiple stakeholders, both inside and outside of the profession, to advance the practice of managed care pharmacy and/or improve the health care delivery system.

Nomination and Selection Process

Anyone may nominate a candidate. Self-nominations are also accepted. Additionally, the nomination must be supported by four other individuals. Nominees may also be asked for qualifying information.

Nominations must be accompanied by the nominee's CV or résumé. Nominations must be submitted online at award.amcpfoundation.org.

Any person may be nominated for the Steven G. Avey Award. AMCP membership is not a prerequisite. Current members of the AMCP Board of Directors, AMCP Foundation Board of Trustees, or employees of AMCP or AMCP Foundation are not eligible. The award may be given posthumously.

The final selection is made by the AMCP Past Presidents & Founders Advisory Council after initial screening and scoring conducted by the Steven G. Avey Award Committee, appointed by the AMCP Foundation.